

SEAGULL'S CYCLES

Unveiling Bike Shop Mysteries

Leading with education to dissolve the unnecessary bike shop ego, Seagull's Cycles understands you can't live without your bike.

Services

Educate. Grow and cultivate your bike knowledge through learning. It's not magic. Let us show you. Follow along via our social channels or subscribe to the newsletter for upcoming clinics and classes. We engage in healthy community conversations & ongoing education.

Consign. Need to sell a used bike or parts? Seagull's Cycles will carry the frustration of selling while you hit the trail. Count on me to get the best consignment price based on knowledge and experience in the marketplace. Our commission ensures we'll sell at the top viable price.

Repair. We've designed the shop around getting you educated and getting you rolling with fast repairs and pickup/dropoff to save time and headaches. No more two week wait times.

Our Story

Owner, Kyle Foster.

Raised in Golden, Colorado, Kyle started working in a bike shop somewhat by accident when ski season turned into bike season.

Having worked in a fair share of shops for 15 years, he maintains the reminder that he was once new to the world of cycling and full of questions.

- United Bicycle Institute, Ashland, OR, 2010. Master Mechanic certification. Certified Master wheel builder. Shop Management and operations certificate. Fox and Rockshox master suspension service tech.
- SRAM Technical University Course Graduate

“My passion is education and innovation. The curiosity in me seeks creativity. The rebel in me wants to break the bike shop mold. Together, we create a community advocating for a healthy lifestyle.” +Kyle

Mission

Committed to passing on knowledge, Seagull's Cycles offers education, repair and consignment. Our desire to guide clients through the world of bike nuances is built on transparency, which results in a sense of ease and trust.
